

Hi everyone!

Thank you so much for your continued encouragement and support.

I wanted to let you know that I will be returning to Canada this weekend. I am visiting for a quick trip for two reasons:

1. My grandma, Doris Shaw, passed away. Thankfully, she loved Jesus very much and had a deep relationship with Him. We find hope in knowing that she is in heaven with Jesus. We will be celebrating her and my grandpa's life on Saturday afternoon.
2. I have a doctor's appointment tomorrow at the missionary health institute in Toronto. I have had some continuing health concerns. I was test for lupus and rheumatoid arthritis here, and both tests came back negative. It's looking like an infection, but we want to get this confirmed back home.

I would really appreciate prayer in these next couple days as it will be both challenging and encouraging to see friends and family.

Things are going well at school. It is hard to believe that we are almost finished with our third quarter! My first graders just finished a verb project! They did a fantastic job. My second graders are currently working on dramas for language, and they are having a great job! I'm excited to see what they come up with! We are preparing for Easter next week. I am excited to start talking about Easter in depth with them and I was asked to prepare an Easter song for our school service.

Blessings,
Catherine
